

Part 1: Model Answer

Do you prefer shopping in shopping malls or street markets?

I'd say I prefer street markets. I like going from stall to stall seeing what they have. The street markets near where I live tend to have all sorts of local produce and artisanal goods. You can get honey from local bees, artisan bread, and lots of organic vegetables. Some of the markets also have clothes and you can sometimes get a bargain if you're lucky. I was able to buy a pair of Timberland boots for just £10 last time I went.
