

Part 1: Model Answer

Have you ever had singing lessons?

No, I haven't. Funnily enough, my parents go to singing lessons every week and they are always trying to bring me along. However, to be honest, I don't think I'd enjoy doing singing lessons. I'm too self-conscious to sing in front of people. I'd find the whole thing too nerve-wracking.
