

Part 1: Model Answer - Have you lived in this home for a long time?

Have you lived in this home for a long time?

I've been living in my apartment for the better part of two years. I used to live in the city centre, but to be honest, I found it a bit loud and expensive. I'm much happier living on the outskirts of the city where it's quieter.

Useful points

Present Perfect Continuous: have/has been + verb-ing

Used to show actions that started in the past and have been continuous until the present.

"I've been living in my apartment for the better part of two years."

Used to + Infinitive

Show an action/state that was true in the past but not in the present.

"I used to live in the city centre, but to be honest, I found it a bit loud and expensive."

Find something + Adjective

Used to show a personal opinion/judgment about something, based on one's experience or perception.

"I used to live in the city centre, but to be honest, I found it a bit loud and expensive."

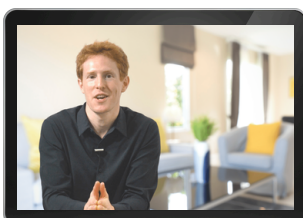

To be much happier + verb-ing

Used to show that someone is experiencing a greater degree of happiness due to a specific ongoing action/situation.

"I'm much happier living on the outskirts of the city where it's quieter."

Write your answer

Have you lived in this home for a long time?

IELTS Preparation Courses
englishprotips.com