Part 1: Model Answer

Why did you choose this work?
Well, I've always wanted to have my own business. I enjoyed working for other companies, but in the back of my mind, I always had the desire to work for myself. Throughout my teaching career, I focused on IELTS and test preparation, and I've always been a passionate teacher, so it seemed logical that I would focus on IELTS preparation for my business.

Useful vocabulary

Back of my mind
This phrase refers to thoughts or ideas that are not at the forefront of one's attention but are still present in one's subconscious or peripheral awareness. These are thoughts that a person is somewhat aware of but not actively thinking about or focusing on.
"I enjoyed working for other companies, but in the back of my mind, I always had the desire to work for myself."

I've always been interested in _____, so it seemed logical to become a/an _____.
"I've always been interested in how things work, so it seemed logical to become an engineer.*"

I chose to become a/an _____ because _____.
"I chose to become an accountant because it pays well.*"

I've always liked _____, so it seemed natural to become a/an _____.
"I've always liked helping people, so it seemed natural to become a doctor.*"

Write your answer

Why did you choose this work?

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

IELTS Preparation Courses

Specialising in Band 7+

visit englishprotips.com